1. Use Case Model

Assumptions
A1. The system is a CLI application used only by clinic personnel. Patients do not interact with it directly. Their requests (e.g., appointments) are made in person or by phone and entered by administrative staff. Patients are therefore treated as stakeholders, not actors. This is consistent with the description, which defines user roles only for administrative staff and healthcare professionals.

